PHASE I CIVIC CENTER EXCAVATION

The Carmel Youth Center stands above the completed excavation for Carmel's new police station, corporation yard and public works building at Junipero and Fourth avenues. The excavation will permit placing underground a pistol shooting range for the police department and most of the corporation yard facilities. At ground level will be the police station at the north end of the site. The top of the corporation yard structure will be a landscaped area. A disaster center for the city also will be placed underground.

How We Are Paying For Sunset And Civic Center

BY MARJORY LLOYD

The history of the acquisition and financing of Sunset Center also construction of Phase I of the Civic Center at Junipero and Fourth, including a new police station, corporation yard and public works building, goes back over ten years.

In 1954, the city hired a professional planner, Larry Livingston, to aid in the framing of the General Plan for the City of Carmel. A citizens committee, encompassing a cross section of the community, appointed by the city council, studied the future needs of Carmel and presented its recommendations to Mr. Livingston. Based on these, he began framing the general plan.

Most of the final Livingston plan was rejected by the city council after public hearings during which

CARMEL UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

Committee To Help Board Pick Superintendent

The resignation of Wayne Greenfield, assistant superintendent, was accepted last night by the Carmel Unified School District board of education. His resignation comes only a short time after the resignation of District Superintendent Medill Bair.

In his letter of resignation to the board, Mr. Greenfield stated that he needed to leave his present position in order to complete work on his doctorate. He had been granted an extension on this work a year ago and the extension expires on September 1. Mr. Greenfield, who has been assistant superintendent since 1958, will be an instructor at the high school next year.

Medill Bair also received the formal acceptance of his resignation as superintendent at the meeting. He was thanked for his service to the district by board members.

Trustee Dr. Hilton Bialek announced that a special screening committee had been appointed by the board to help in the selection of a new superintendent. The members of the committee are Dr. Clarence Hall, superintendent of Pacific Grove Unified School District, Dr. George J. Faul, president of Monterey Peninsula College, and Marvin Patterson, president of the Association of Carmel Teachers.

The committee will screen applications and submit five names to the board. Dr. Bialek pointed out that the board would not necessarily appoint one of the five recommended by the screening committee. In regard to the area from which the new superintendent would be selected, Dr. Bialek stated that, "We have not limited our interest for applicants from the local area." Interviews with candidates will be held by the board on or before July 18.

Planners Frown On Apartments At River Inn

Action of the Carmel Planning Commission yesterday afternoon included recommending denial of rezoning to permit 128-unit apartment development at River Inn and approving the Del Monte Forest section of the Del Monte Properties Company plan with minor modifications. Planners also advocated removal of all directional signs in the median islands on Ocean Avenue but stated that if existing signs are not removed, others should be allowed.

The decision on the River Inn will be forwarded to the county planning commission which will hold a public hearing on the requested rezoning to allow the apartment development on Wednesday.

Carmel planners were asked to make recommendation on this rezoning as the property in question, situated along Highway One on the north bank of the Carmel River, falls within the area of the Carmel General Plan.

Reasons for the denial, which will be forwarded to county planners are:

Doin' what comes naturally, above, is Sharman Smith, who led her horse to first prize in the halter class at Saturday's Play Day horse show in Carmel Valley. Sharman is the granddaughter of Lynn and Rose Hodges, long time Carmel residents, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, who have recently arrived from Scottsdale, Arizona, to take over management of the Hodges' Mission Ranch Stables.

The successful show was arranged and carried out by members of the 4-H Light Horse project with the assistance of their advisors.

White Oaks Theatre Announces Schedule Of Summer Musicals

The production schedule has been announced for the eighth summer musical season at White Oaks Theatre in Carmel Valley. Members of the theatre's training center for the performing arts will be involved in musical and comedy presentations tonight through September 11.

Four major musical productions which will run Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights at 8:30 o'clock are:

"Carousel" (June 23-July 17). Rodgers and Hammerstein's American classic revolving around the romance of the tough Billy Bigelow and the gentle Julie Jordan.

"Once Upon A Mattress" (July 21-August 7), the musical comedy version of the fairy tale story of The Princess and the Pea. The success of the White Oaks production four summers ago has brought about this revival of the New York hit.

"Stop the World, I Want to Get Off" (August 11-September 4), Anthony Newley's diversion from the musical-comedy "norm" which brought with its long Broadway run a brilliance all its own.

"Così Fan Tutte" (September 8, 9, 10, 11), Mozart's great comic work dealing with the foolishness of men and the faithlessness of women. It will be performed in English four nights only.

In addition to the musical schedule, two one-act French light operas will be presented in English on Wednesday nights at 8:30 o'clock. They are "Marriage by Lanternlight" by Offenbach and "Doctor Miracle" by Bizet.

The British revue which became

The Studio Theatre and Restaurant opens its ninth summer season on July 1 with "The Fantasticks." Now in its seventh year in New York and its third in San Francisco, "The Fantasticks" has been produced by more than 400 theatre groups in more than 30 countries. If, as seems likely, it lasts two more years in New York, it will surpass "Life With Father" as long-run champion.

"The Fantasticks" was written by Tom Jones and composed by Harvey L. Schmidt who later collaborated on "110 In The Shade." With an initial budget of only $16,500, it has become one of Broadway's strike-it-rich legends, as each $1,000 investment in 1960 has earned $13,000 to date.

The authors credit the plot to Rostand's "Les Romanesques," but its more remote ancestry is the Pyramus and Thisbe play-within-a-play of "A Midsummer-Night's Dream." With a few exceptions like "Finian's Rainbow" and "Brigadoon," whimsy has not proved a durable commodity in musical theatre, but the whimsy of "The Fantasticks" strikes basic truths with which audiences identify, hence it never becomes cloying.

Directed by Michael Keller, the Studio Theatre production will run from July 1 through July 10 and thereafter will alternate weekly with "The Pajama Game" which opens July 15. Shows are presented nightly at 8:30 o'clock except Monday. Reservations may be made for dinner and show, or for the show only, by telephoning 624-1661.

MPC Free Movies During July To Be Classic Comedies

The MPC Friday evening film series will open tomorrow with "Thirty Years of Fun," a composite of Buster Keaton, Harry Langdon, Charlie Chaplin and Laurel and Hardy comedies.

Other films on the schedule are: "Two Tars," a Laurel and Hardy, with two Robert Benchley shorts, two W. C. Fields shorts and one Chaplin—July 1; "Tugboat Annie," the memorable film about a "lady" skipper, starring Marie Dressler and Wallace Beery—July 8; "What! No Beer?" a mixup over the repeal of prohibition, starring Buster Keaton, Jimmy Durante and Phyllis Barry—July 15; "Woman of the Year," with Spencer Tracy and Katherine Hepburn in a riotous battle of marriage and careers—July 22; and "Days of Thrills and Laughter," featuring highlights from dozens of Hollywood's funniest comedies and hair-raising thrillers in the days of the silents—July 29.

50 Years Ago in Carmel

—THIS WEEK—

MANY IMPROVEMENTS FOR PEBBLE BEACH

Announcement is made by the Pacific Improvement Co. that at Pebble Beach, a suburb of Carmel, a sale of large acreage has been made to Dr. Max Rothschild, a prominent San Francisco physician. Adjoining this property is a section which has been acquired by Ross Ambler Curran, Burlingame clubman.

An 80-acre tract has been sold to A. Kingsley Macomber who will build a beautiful residence, at once, and will also maintain a game preserve.

Plans are being drawn for the three homes.

For the Col. Karmany home, adjoining the Pixley property, the contract has been let, approximating $20,000.

A section of a little over four acres has been acquired by Frank Guernsey of Stockton, who will begin the construction of a summer residence in the near future.

Ground has been cleared and graded and the foundation set for an addition to the Lodge.

Plans are now being drawn for a bathing pavilion to be built at Pebble Beach. It is planned, too, to have glass bottomed boats there, available the year round, and to convert that portion of Carmel Bay into a veritable sportsman's paradise.

Changes will be made on the 17 Mile Drive. The part of the road running east of the Lodge will be closed and the road will stretch along the pipe line and in Pescadero Canyon instead. The purpose of this change is to provide a golf course without obstacles.

CARMEL BIG THINGS

A few days ago Capt. Evans walked into the Pine Cone office with a turnip which weighed three pounds and ten ounces and was 18 inches in diameter. This meal was grown in Evans' garden on San Carlos Street.

Then came Mr. J. B. Sylvester with a fine, perfectly formed onion which tipped the scale at a little over one pound and measured over 14 inches in circumference.

Come on, ye city farmers!

TEMPERANCE FOUNDATION

The program for the Temperance Federation meeting of Pacific Grove, Monterey, Seaside and Carmel will be on Saturday at the bath house on the beach at the foot of Ocean Avenue. There will be music at 11 a.m., a basket picnic at noon followed at 1 p.m. by a speech by E. L. Rich, Dry California organizer.

A telegram to the Pine Cone conveys the information that Cale Rice Young, author of "Yolanda of Cypress," is to be in Carmel to witness the performance of his play at the Forest Theater. Miss Wilkes will be unable to play Veronika in "The Piper," the children's play. Miss Alice MacDougal has consented to play the part.

HAIL! HAIL! THE BOYS ARE HERE

With their fine camp in the healthful pine forest, east of the business section of town, all in readiness to receive them, Charles F. Norton and 120 boys arrived in Carmel this week from San Francisco for a five weeks' stay.

The summer encampment of the Columbia Park Boys' Club in Carmel is an annual event, and to some the summer would not be the summer without them here.

SALE FOR THE LIBRARY

The Carmel Library has received 100 parcel post packages from all parts of the world. These are to be sold Saturday in Mrs. Yard's studio. There will be a book guessing contest. Those taking part are asked come representing a book or a well known character in fiction.

PINE NEEDLES

Mrs. L. F. Turner and her daughter, Miss Lucille, are here for all summer. . . . Last Wednesday the Hoopers entertained the recently arrived Boke family. . . . The Hathaway family is spending the summer at Pebble Beach. Miss Marie and Douglas Short were recent Pine Cone visitors. . . . The Hilliard family and the Josselyn boys are on a camping trip down the coast. . . . Mrs. R. F. Legge of Berkeley is among a group of ladies in the Harrison cottage on Camino Real. . . . Mrs. Vernon L. Kellogg is on her way to Belgium to help with a branch of war relief work. Henry Cowell was summoned to Berkeley on Monday. . . . Maryan Hopper had a birthday party last week. Invited to her home were Hilda and Helen Hilliard, Alice and Juanita Pepper, Grace Wickham, Gertrude Rendtorff, Phyllis Overstreet. Her sister, Elizabeth and her brother, Jim, were present, too.

Mrs. Reamer

Mrs. Catherine A. Reamer of Reamer's Point in Carmel died Monday evening in a local convalescent hospital after a long period of failing health.

A native of Leeds, Canada, she was born September 2, 1880.

The family home, where Mrs. Reamer resided until her illness, was built in 1908 by her husband, the late George W. Reamer, when the Carmel Point area was a wild-flower-covered moor, devoid of trees or houses. Mr. Reamer, a former mining engineer, constructed several of the first houses in Carmel. He also designed and built the altar for the original All Saints' Church in Carmel which now is in the Episcopal church in Novato, former pastorate of the Reverend Peter Farmer.

Mrs. Reamer was for many years an active member of the old All Saints' Church and delighted in her task of gathering and arranging mixtures of wildflowers and foliage of native shrubs for the church. She belonged also to the Monterey Peninsula chapter of the League of Women Voters.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Sara Elber of Carmel; a son, Bain Reamer of Kailua, Hawaii; six grandchildren, John Elber of Los Angeles, E. Catherine, Daniel and David Elber of Carmel, Mrs. Lani Moeller of San Jose and Sally Reamer of Kailua; also relatives living in Canada.

Memorial services at All Saints' Church are to be announced.

Letter To Editor

RECALL

Editor,
Pine Cone

I was horrified to read in last week's Pine Cone that Mr. Grant, our mayor, is losing, or will be losing (I'm not sure which) an estimated $5,000 as a result of his serving on our city council.

It seems to me that no public servant should be called upon to make such a sacrifice, particularly when a considerable segment of the taxpayers seem to feel it would be well if he devoted his full time to other pursuits.

Since Mr. Grant has offered to donate $50 to any movement which would relieve him of such an onerous burden, it is my feeling that those of us who are concerned with simple justice should be willing to donate our time and signatures to achieve that end.

William H. Pentony

PHASE I CIVIC CENTER

Editor,
Carmel Pine Cone

I have been following, in your paper and also in the Monterey Peninsula Herald, the controversy regarding the construction of a municipal complex at Fourth and Junipero. I agree with the letter from Col. De Camp, which you published in your June 16th issue, that it is a matter which is of grave concern to all residents of Carmel.

The question of whether it is wise to saddle the community with an additional debt of $500,000 so soon after we have willingly assumed a bonded indebtedness of $600,000 for the Sunset School property is open to question. I note that my property taxes have increased 70% in the nine years I have been here.

Quite frankly, I do not know enough about the pros and cons of the municipal complex to form an honest opinion. I do feel that your paper would be doing the community a great service if you would give us an unbiased account of both sides of the question.

Very truly,
Frank O. Bowman

Editor,
Carmel Pine Cone

I agree with Col. De Camp's letter in the June 16th Pine Cone. For the benefit of your readers, I urge you to print a review of Carmel's financial situation by a competent independent investigator.

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs.) Aimee Charlton

Editor,
Pine Cone

As property owners and taxpayers still in Carmel, we were greatly interested in Col. De Camp's plea to the Pine Cone to bring to the attention of all citizens the several phases of the contest that now seems to be troubling our city hall. Although Dr. Broadbudd's long illness required our change of residence, we still feel more fondness for Carmel than for any other place we have called home.

We would urge, therefore, that the Pine Cone present some sort of review by competent and unbiased financial authority, as well as by knowledgeable citizens, of Carmel's finances in relation to current housekeeping on the one-hand and adventures into capital expenditures of a luxury class, unsuitable for us, considering the area and population of our small community.

Surely we should not endeavor to drive from our midst by high taxes those of modest income and to recreate the town in the image of the wealthy only.

A few years ago when I was more active in studying and supporting the actions of our city council which best preserved the real values of Carmel for its citizens, we relied heavily on the keen interest, intelligence and fearlessness of our highly esteemed Willma Cook, who seemed to have the soundest knowledge and judgment in Carmel's civic affairs. We still need the leadership of the Pine Cone and hope you will graciously supply it—you and your staff. We still need to beware of tricky, hasty decisions (not the people's choice) and of the motives of selfish exploiters. We need more facts, more unbiased information. Thank you sincerely,

Mabel J. Broadbudd (Mrs. C. A.)

BUQUET-CAMPBELL WEDDING

Shown leaving St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church in Carmel Valley are Mr. and Mrs. John Bruce Campbell, the former Katharine Louise Bucquet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spencer Bucquet of Carmel Meadows. The couple's marriage was performed Saturday afternoon by the Reverend David Hill. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Llewellyn Miller of Carmel Knolls and Hubert Sidney Campbell of Hillsboro Beach, Florida.

Masses of yellow and white flowers reflected the golden summer's day in the church interior and at The Tennis Ranch, where friends and family members were received by the bridal party after the wedding.

Kitty, as she is known to her family and friends, was given in marriage by her father. Her bridal gown, ankle-length, was of white linen trimmed with eyelet and a small cap of white lace held her shoulder-length veil in place. White roses, stephanotis and boudoiria made up the nosegay Kitty carried.

Susan Bucquet, her sister's maid of honor, wore a yellow linen sheath with matching bow hat and carried a nosegay of yellow roses and carnations.

The bridegroom asked a brother, Galen Holshue, of San Francisco to serve as best man. The ushers were Donald Fairchild, Carlton Keppelman and Howard S. Bucquet Jr., brother of the bride.

Mrs. Bucquet attended her daughter's wedding in a two-piece costume of pink linen with matching accessories. Mrs. Miller chose a silk linen dress of hyacinth blue and matching accessories.

The newlywed couple, now traveling in Mexico, will enter the Universidad de las Americas in Mexico City to continue their studies. Both Carmel High School graduates, the bride was a student at the University of the Pacific before her marriage, while her husband attended Monterey Peninsula College.

Kitty is the sister of Susan, George and Howard Bucquet Jr. and the granddaughter of Mrs. George Beeman of San Francisco, who was among the guests.

Members of both families who came from out of town for the event included Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Dewing of Sherman Oaks, Colonel L. L. Rafferty and Mr. and Mrs. John V. Rafferty of Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Beeman, with their daughter, Cynthia, of Atherton. Also Guy Gilchrist of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. James Stoessel and Mr. and Mrs. Grant McCully of Santa Monica.

Jennie-Keith Hill Home

"My ancestors crossed the country faster," remarks Jennie-Keith Hill, whose car broke down in the Mojave Desert en route from Chicago to Carmel. Jennie-Keith, who just received the M.A. degree in anthropology she completed last Fall at Northwestern University, is home to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul K. Hill. She'll return to Northwestern to continue her work with a two-year grant in inter-societal studies.

Don Leidig To Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Graff of Seattle, Washington, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Dwan to Don Glenn Leidig, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Leidig of Carmel. The couple's wedding will take place in St. Margaret Mary Church at Lomita in early July.

Miss Graff, recently rated a master teacher in the Palos Verdes elementary schools, attended Marlyhurst College in Portland, Oregon, later obtaining her teaching credential in Southern California. She has one sister, Mrs. Joseph Krause of Seattle.

Don attended Sunset and Carmel High schools and was graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles, where he was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is now employed with Xerox corporation in Los Angeles. Don is the grandson of long-time Carmel residents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leidig. Mrs. Charles Barry of Portland, Oregon, is his maternal grandmother and he has many relatives in the Carmel area.

Church Group Outing

Ten members of St. Philip's Lutheran Church who have completed their first year of confirmation instruction spent four days last week in a camp-out at Sunnyview Lodge near Boulder Creek. Pastor J. Bernhard Bretheim was assisted in leadership by Harry Kapelkis, a student at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary in Berkeley.

Wed At Carmel Mission

Carmel Mission was the setting Saturday for the marriage of Sallie DeWitt of Carmel to Frank James Preve Jr. of Carmel Valley. The couple recited their wedding vows before the Reverend Frank Dunn at the Basilica altar, adorned for the occasion with pink and white gladioli. A lovely addition to the traditional music was the "Ave Maria," sung by Miss Jacqueline Mizelle of Redwood City.

Sallie was given in marriage by her father, Donovan John DeWitt of New York.

Her bridal dress was of white crepe, fashioned in Empire style, with a small train, and the diaphanous veil covering her hair cascaded to the floor. Fragrant white roses and stephanotis were combined in her bouquet.

Bettie DeWitt, sister of the bride and her maid of honor, chose an Empire style frock of celery-green crepe.

David Preve, whose engagement to Barbara Updike of Carmel was recently announced, was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Jack DeWitt, the bride's brother, and Ralph Black Jr., a cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Sara Jane DeWitt of Carmel attended her daughter's wedding in a three piece costume of beige silk, accented with blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Frank J. Preve, chose an ensemble of pink crepe.

Fresh flowers decorated the old fashioned, five-tiered cake cut by the newlywed couple at the reception which followed the ceremony at La Playa Hotel. Among the out-of-town guests present were the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Madeline Burger of San Jose and the bride's grandfather, Roy Martin DeWitt of Phoenix, Arizona, also Miss Betty Churchill, Miss Evelyn Gordon of Washington, D.C., and Miss Rose Kemmeter of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The couple will make their home in Omaha, Nebraska, where Frank will work for the OCC, Department of Defense, while continuing his studies.

Sallie attended Monterey Peninsula College and was graduated from the University of Miami, Ohio.

Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank James Preve of Carmel Valley, is the brother of Mrs. Margaret Steelman of Modesto. He terminated four years of Army service with the rank of staff sergeant and, while a member of the Armed Forces, attended the University of Maryland (Italian Extension). He has also studied at Monterey Peninsula College.

David Reeds Returned

Dr. and Mrs. J. David Reed returned this week from Europe, where Dr. Reed was engaged for several months on a project for the Stanford Research Institute. Mrs. Reed joined him for the last month of his stay in Stuttgart and the couple traveled to several parts of Germany, also spent a week in Rome when Dr. Reed was a delegate to a NATO conference on field operations.

On their return to the United States, the Reeds attended the wedding of their eldest son, David Jr., to Ann Mary Murphy of Providence, Rhode Island, which took place Sunday at Charlestown, Rhode Island. The bridegroom, who took his basic training at Fort Ord and served three years in the Army, is a junior at Swarthmore College. His bride, a Swarthmore graduate, is beginning her teaching career this summer.

Elected To Scout Board

August Johnson of Carmel was installed as one of the vice presidents of the Boy Scouts of America, Monterey Bay Area Council, at the 35th annual council dinner held June 16 at the Watsonville Elks Club.

MARRIED AT MISSION

Terry Haney and his bride, the former Karen Kalber, are shown before Carmel Mission Basilica following their marriage on June 11. White flowers flanked the altar for the early afternoon ceremony performed by the Reverend Frank Dunn.

Escorted to the altar by her father, James W. Kalber of Carmel, Karen wore a long gown of white lace with lace train and veil and carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

Her maid of honor, Candy Knapp, and her bridesmaids, Katherine Torras and Phyllis Farrar, all of Carmel, were dressed in yellow street-length frocks, complemented by the yellow and white flowers of their bouquets.

John Coburn of Monterey was best man and the ushers were Rick Haney, brother of the bridegroom, and Clayton Hilbert of Carmel.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. G. Warren Knapp of Carmel chose a blue and white brocade suit, with which she wore a matching blue hat. Mrs. A. E. Haney of Monterey, the bridegroom's mother, appeared in a pink knit suit.

At the reception which followed at the Nix Studio, the newlywed cut a traditional wedding cake, surrounded by gardenias and ferns, and received the congratulations of family members and friends.

After a honeymoon in San Francisco, the couple are at home in Carmel, where the bridegroom is employed with Knapp Mill and Cabinet Company.

The new Mrs. Haney is a graduate of Carmel High School. She attended Monterey Peninsula College, as did her husband, a graduate of Monterey High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Haney of Monterey. Terry has two brothers, Rick and David.

Norbergs Take To Mountains

Councilman Gunnar Norberg and his wife Barbara, chairman of the Carmel Arts Commission, are off to the high Sierra for a well deserved vacation. Their pack trip into the wilderness of the southern part of the range will take them "beyond telephones, traffic, and talk," Barbara said hopefully.

New Residents, Old Timers

For many, many years, Les Crandall and his sister Mary have returned to Carmel for vacations, collecting a list of friends whose names evoke the world of the theatre, dance and the arts. With retirement and the recent acquisition of a house, they have now become permanent residents.

During the years that Les, artist and illustrator, was on the Pacific Coast, he designed theatrical sets for such producer-directors as the late Edward Kuster and Maurice Ankrum. For 15 years, when playwright-director Dan Totheroh and dancer Betty Horst were active in productions of the Bohemian Club's annual Mountain Play, the artist did the sets for the plays at the Bohemian Grove. Now, after 22 years in Chicago as a commercial artist, Les Crandall is enjoying village life again.

Mary Crandall, who has made her home in San Francisco, recently retired as a senior cartographic technician for the National Parks system. She has also done many of the delightful maps of the California State Parks which are so helpful to travelers.

New Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Ryan Smith, frequent visitors in the past, have moved from Santa Cruz and are now making Carmel their home. Their daughter, Susie, will enter Santa Catalina School for Girls next Fall as a freshman.

Leavetakers Gave The Party

In spite of friends who hoped to give them a bon voyage party, the hospitable Jack Geisens entertained at their home on the eve of their departure for Europe last week.

The Geisens flew to Washington, D. C., before visiting New York, where they will board a ship for Rotterdam. There they will pick up a car and drive to Micheline's native Paris, later to the summer residence of her godmother on the Bay of Biscay to spend the remainder of the season. With them is Mrs. Geisen's son, Dan Robison, accompanied by surfboard, wet suit, assorted musical instruments and probably a number of things his mother hasn't yet discovered.

Jack's mother will occupy their home while the Geisens are away and Micheline's daughters and their families will be here off and on during the summer.

Commission For A Graduate

Robert L. Fergusson, son of Major General and Mrs. Robert G. Fergusson, graduated June 6 from the University of Richmond, Virginia, at the same time receiving a Distinguished Military Student rating in the ROTC and a Regular Army commission. An industrial management major, the son of Fort Ord's commanding general received a degree in business administration. His father, en route to attend a seminar at the Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island, was present at the commissioning ceremony.

Lieutenant Fergusson was expected to visit his parents at their Monterey Presidio quarters before reporting to the Artillery Basic School at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. While at the university, the young officer was cadet commandant of his reserve unit, a member of Scabbard and Blade and of the Society for the Advancement of Management.

Nova Scotia Summer

Laidlaw and Abbie Lou Williams left last weekend for their summer retreat at Baddeck, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia. Before leaving the coast, they visited in Berkeley with their daughter and son-in-law, Alice and Harvey Meyers, and the Meyers' children, Cynthia, Nathaniel and baby Celia.

A recent visitor at the Williams' Carmel Highlands home was Abbie Lou's sister, Mrs. Eleanor Black of San Francisco. Another sister, who grew up in Carmel as Betsy Bosworth, has recently moved from New York to Santa Cruz where her husband, Gurden Mooser, is a vice chancellor of the University of California.

At Wellesley Reunion

Mrs. Horace M. Poynter and Mrs. Walter S. Tower of Carmel were among alumnae who returned to commencement-reunion weekend at Wellesley College in Massachusetts from June 3-6. Members of 16 classes from 1891 to 1961 joined graduating seniors and guests at the commencement exercises.

Relaxed At Palmilla

"We didn't make history," says Mrs. Jack Martin, "but Jack did manage to catch two Marlin on a 12-pound test line, which is something of a feat." The Martins spent a week at Palmilla, where they report the accommodations to be excellent in that Baja California section considered a paradise for sports fishermen.

They returned home in time for the graduation of Mrs. Martin's daughter, Diane Whelan, from the University of California at Los Angeles and of her son, Bart, from Monterey Peninsula College. Diane will study this summer at the University of the Americas in Mexico City, later join friends to travel about the country.

MPC Instructor Receives Grant

Al Giordano, Monterey Peninsula College business instructor who has been on sabbatical leave for the 1965-66 academic year to complete his doctoral dissertation, has been awarded a National Science Foundation fellowship. New Technical Assistants

Two Carmel girls were among nine dental assisting and medical assisting students receiving two-year certificates of completion from Monterey Peninsula College June 7. They are Wendy Ericson, dental assistant, and Nancy Ann Miller, medical assistant. Both are 1963 graduates of Carmel High School.

Charles Mulkey, MPC dean of technical-vocational education, presented the certificates at a ceremony attended by other members of the MPC staff.

Colonel Bibb at MPC

Colonel Everett I. Bibb of Carmel, now teaching sociology and speed reading at Fort Ord, will serve as a part-time instructor in sociology during the 1966-67 year at Monterey Peninsula College. He returns to MPC, where he formerly taught part-time, after a few years' absence, during which he accompanied "The Passagemaker" on some of her voyages.

To Attend NDEA Institute

Lloyd Cunningham of Carmel, a teacher at Highland School in Monterey, is taking part in the Institute for Teachers of the Culturally Disadvantaged at Chico State College from Monday to August 12. He is one of 50 teachers from 11 states chosen to attend the program made possible by a grant from the USOE under the National Defense Education Act.

The teachers, most from school systems with a high concentration of youngsters with special problems, will share ideas, attend special lectures and actually work with children for the summer session.

On Heart Association Board

Dr. Basil I. Allaire and Ralph Castagna of Carmel were among those elected to the board of directors of the Central Mission Trails Heart Association at the organization's annual meeting held June 5 at the Mark Thomas Inn.

Painter Returned From Maui

Miss Sally Green has returned from a three-month stay on the Island of Maui, where she painted a series of oils commissioned by the owner of a beautiful resort she visited. Each of the apartments and cottages there will have a painting of an Hawaiian flower, fruit, fish, and old missionary church or a seascape.

Miss Green exhibited the paintings at Mrs. Peggy Morrow's seawall show and won first prize for the best decorated booth. She plans to spend the summer at "Stepaside," the Torres Street cottage she bought and remodeled two years ago. Mrs. Morrow is the former Peggy Porter Marquard.

At Summer Workshop

A Carmel writer, Doris Gates, is instructing a summer workshop in developmental reading at McNeese State College in Lake Charles, Louisiana.

New Peace Corps Volunteer

Terri Helene Hopelain, who completed her training as a Peace Corps volunteer at the University of Arizona and in rural Mexico, left Friday for Caracas, Venezuela, and her assignment to the Rehabilitation Program/YMCA in that country. A 1961 graduate of Carmel High School, Terri majored in history of art at Monterey Peninsula College, also studied at San Francisco State College, the University of Hawaii and UCLA, where she was employed in the office of the dean in the College of Fine Arts.

The new volunteer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hopelain of Carmel and the sister of Ricky, a Carmel Middle School student. Her sister, Patty, is living in France where her husband, Bill Cearley, is serving with the U. S. Air Force.

MARRIED IN COVINA

MRS. MICHAEL ALLMAN COOK

The bride shown above is the former Linda Sue Hoffland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Corwin C. Hoffland of West Covina, whose marriage to Ensign Michael Allman Cook of Pebble Beach took place on Saturday. The evening ceremony at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Covina was performed by the Reverend Bertrand H. Hause and Dr. D. Miles Dawson.

Linda was given in marriage by her father. Her full length white satin gown was fashioned with a shallow scoop-neckline bodice, elbow length sleeves and a modified A-line skirt. Its Empire design was emphasized by appliques of lace at the waist, the hemline and the end of the train. A white satin rose supported the four-tiered veil covering her hair.

Mrs. Kenneth C. Tucker was her sister's matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Thomas F. Terry, also a sister of the bride, Mrs. Robert C. Swartz and Miss Darian Dreyfuss. Their long Empire style dresses were of blue crepe with which they wore matching half-circle veil hats.

Allman J. Cook served as his son's best man and seating the guests were Martin R. Munday, Nillo J. Lund and Charles Rogers.

Mrs. Hoffland greeted guests wearing a long flowing gown of pink chiffon. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Cook chose a full length, three-piece ensemble in candlelight satin, its hip-length jacket of Chantilly lace over net embroidered with pearls and sequins.

After a reception at the South Hills Country Club in West Covina, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in the Bahamas. They will make their home in Chicago while the bridegroom, commissioned an Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve June 16, is assigned to the Great Lakes Naval Training Center.

The bride, who attended Covina High School, graduated from the University of California, Berkeley, last year and this month received her general secondary credential at the university. At UC she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Her husband, a 1960 graduate of Carmel High School, received a B. A. degree in architecture this month from the University of California, Berkeley, where he was a member of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Participants Inspired By MCCCCP Forum On Beauty

BY GUNNAR NORBERG

Beauty in man's environment on the Monterey Peninsula and adjacent areas was the topic at last Saturday's forum held by the Monterey County Council for Conservation and Planning. And beauty there surely was in Indian Village where the forum was held—in a clearing not far from the sea, surrounded by tall pines of Del Monte Forest.

Twenty-two speakers presented many points of view and much information during the all-afternoon program. The conservation council is headed this year by Dudley Swim, Carmel Valley rancher, who conducted the forum.

Mr. Swim pointed out that the purpose of the forum was to "stimulate thinking" on the maintenance and enhancement of all the aspects of beauty in the environment of home, town, and countryside. Important to the concept of any area-wide view of beauty in nature is the maintenance of uncluttered natural vistas—"open spaces" or "green belts"—and these, said Mr. Swim, are triply threatened by tax-assessment practices, state highway builders, and "bureaucrats in general."

FARR AMENDMENT

The tax assessment threat develops when subdividers acquire land adjacent to farms, orchards or ranchers. Assessors then raise assessment on nearby agricultural land simply because higher taxes are applied to the land subdivided for residential purposes. Senator Fred Farr was scheduled to talk about his proposal to remove this threat through the pending "Open Space Amendment," or "SCA No. 4," but a previous and overlapping commitment prevented his attendance.

The intent of the "Open Space Amendment" is to hold assessments on agriculturally used land at lower rates applicable to such use, instead of raising assessment to the often much higher subdivision rates which frequently have forced farmers, orchardists, or ranchers to sell out to other subdividers, or to subdivide their own acres, even though they have had no wish to do so. The indirect effect of such actions has been to eliminate aesthetically desirable broad, unbroken vistas which everyone might enjoy. This destruction of natural beauty has often occurred on a massive scale and remains a threat everywhere, unless appropriate legislation such as the pending "Open Space Amendment" can be enacted.

FREEWAY PERIL

The second danger to beauty in nature, was the principal point to which Col. Allen Griffin, alluded in his talk. "The freeway is an example of the horror" which is foisted upon community after community throughout the state by the almost unbridled power of the California Division of Highways, he stressed.

Huge freeway interchanges and related structures, now just started on the Fort Ord-Carmel Hill sector, will produce a new "can of worms" which will be even "wormier" than most of us now think, even in our worst thoughts, he added.

Referring to the relationship of bureaucrats in general, even at the lower echelons, to such "can-of-worms" developments, Col. Griffin said that even when higher officials may somewhat slightly modify their usual thinking in freeway matters, their subordinates sometimes, nevertheless, proceed in usual conventional patterns because any alternate procedures seem too alien.

Pursuing the matter of freeway perils to natural beauty, Admiral C. W. Fisher (USN, Ret.) president of the Carmel Citizens' Committee, proposed specific action to stop freeway construction short of the Carmel River. He urged a small change in wording in Section 462 of the State Highway Code. The new words would say the freeway should reach from "the crest of Carmel Hill" to San Francisco. This would stop the planned Carmel Hill-to-Carmel River freeway construction.

PRESERVE PENINSULA

Unlike many other places in the world, Vern Yadon, curator of the Pacific Grove Natural History Museum, pointed out the Monterey Peninsula and adjacent areas do not face the problem, basic in so many other localities, of having to try to create beauty in environment.

"You cannot beautify the already beautiful," he said, "and ours is already one of the most beautiful places in the world."

Other speakers also shared Mr. Yadon's view. It was felt that, perhaps, the best that can be done by anyone locally is to "preserve" natural beauty. In this connection, J. R. McDaniel of Carmel Highlands spoke about the Nature Conservancy, a nonprofit, tax-exempt organization, which acts as a holding company for lands which are ultimately to be conveyed to public ownership for public use.

Others who spoke at the community-beautification forum were Ed Hogan, Carmel Valley Flying Club; George Uyeda, Watson's Nursery; Beverly Stover, Mid-Valley Property Owners' Association; Rex Pryer, president, Carmel Valley Property Owners' Association; Col. Roy Inman, deputy post commander, Fort Ord; Mrs. Margi Setchel, manager, Monterey Chamber of Commerce; Newell Smith, Lower Carmel Valley Advisory Committee; David Rudolph, Monterey Peninsula Junior Chamber of Commerce; Dr. Bruce Meyer, Sierra Club; Earl D. Grafton, Mayor of Pacific Grove; Frances Palms, Monterey Civic Appearance Committee; James Pruitt, Comstock Associates; William Moore, A.I.A.; Vice Admiral E. W. Mills, Del Monte Homeowners' Association; Larry Parent, Woodbridge Acres Property Owners' Association; Mrs. Abel Potts, 1965 chairman, "Candy Cane Lane", Pacific Grove; Robert W. Johnson, Monterey Street Decorations Committee; and Mrs. Elmarie Dyke, identified simply as "Mrs. Pacific Grove" on the program.

As the forum concluded, Mrs. W. R. Holman of Pacific Grove summarized the feeling of many in attendance, when she said, "We needed inspiration, and now we are filled with it."

The first part of the program will include music of Saint-Saens, Borowski, Beethoven, Dvorak and Demarest.

The second portion of the program will be in memory of Mary Lindsay-Oliver, a colorful figure in local musical circles until her death one year ago. Selections by Bach, Gounod and Bruck will be played.

All Sunday afternoon programs are presented under the auspices of the Carmel Arts Commission. The 1966 series has special significance as Carmel is celebrating 50 years of incorporation as a city.

Conservationist Says Save Natural Growth

Speaker at the Cosmos Club luncheon Tuesday was Vern Yadon, curator of the Pacific Grove Museum of Natural History. He is an authority on the flora and fauna of this area.

Mr. Yadon pointed out that the character of the Monterey Peninsula is being decimated by building projects which scrape away 30 million years of soil, then landscape with plant material from Asia, Japan and the rest of the world which is not native to the Monterey Peninsula.

He further stated that the California Highway Department has only one landscape architect and not one biologist to advise it in the retention and maintenance of plant life along the thousands of miles of roads it builds.

Even students who obtain specimens of marine life along our shores, and then throw them away, destroy hundreds of years of plant life in the name of science. Mr. Yadon feels teachers should encourage such students to use cameras and sketch pads. He also said that we must give time and consideration now to conserving the beauty of our Peninsula or we are going to lose most of the beauty that has attracted us here to live.

KNUDSENS' DANISH DELIGHTS

When Helena and Aage Knudsen came to California from their native Copenhagen they came to stay. In San Francisco they were associated with Blum's. When this well known pastry establishment opened a branch in Carmel, it was Aage who supervised their fine confections.

Seven years ago the Knudsens started their own successful business which has flourished into a super modern "Bageri-Konditor" (Bakery Coffee Shop).

Strategically next to the handsome new Village Theatre, the "Royal Danish" with its gay circus posters and the latest equipment, will please the most discriminating. The cosmopolitan atmosphere reflects Carmel's special brand of togetherness. Something grand has happened to the corner of Dolores and Seventh!

The most expeditious way to arrange a wedding is to order a gorgeous cake from the Knudsen bakery. A few steps away, Nielsen Brothers Inc. will plan the reception from champagne and canapes to a full scale party. What could be more perfect for a rare day in June?

Helena and Aage are proud that everything is baked right on their premises within plain view. What fun to drop into the konditori for some pastry and coffee or tea after the cinema. Party Plans is happy to give you Helena's Danish recipes for butterhorns and coffee cake. We are also delighted to publish the Knudsens' Sunday supper menu which they cook at home with loving care for their many friends.

BUTTERHORNS (Smorhorn)

One cake yeast; $\frac{1}{4}$ cup milk; 1 cup butter; 1 tbsp. sugar; 2 cups flour; $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. salt; 1 egg white, beaten slightly; ground almonds and sugar.

Dissolve yeast in the milk, heated to lukewarm. Mix $\frac{1}{2}$ cup butter, sugar, flour, salt as you would for pie crust; add the yeast mixture and mix well. Let rise to double bulk. Roll out to $\frac{1}{4}$ inch thickness. Spread the other half cup butter over all. Fold over four thicknesses and roll to $\frac{1}{4}$ inch. Repeat this three times. Let rise 30 minutes, then fold, roll and refold three more times or until all traces of the butter have disappeared. Roll out last time and cut into 3 inch squares. Cut these squares into triangles. Roll each triangle from the broad side and pinch down the tip to hold it. Brush with egg white, sprinkle with sugar and ground almonds. Let rise to double bulk. Bake until brown at 375 F.

COFFEE CAKE (Kaffekage)

One cake yeast; 2 cups milk; 1 cup sugar; 1 cup butter; 1 tsp. salt; 2 eggs, well beaten; 1 tsp. ground cardamom; flour enough to make stiff dough; cinnamon; raisins if desired.

Soak the yeast in $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of milk heated to lukewarm. Scald the remaining milk with the sugar, salt and butter. While it is still hot, stir in enough flour to make a light batter. When cooled to lukewarm add the eggs, yeast and cardamom. Let rise for an hour, in a warm place, then work in enough flour to make a firm dough. Knead well and set aside in a greased bowl until doubled in bulk. Roll out to 1 inch thickness. Spread with softened butter and sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Let rise to 2 inches and bake at 350 F. Raisins are worked into the dough at the time the last flour is added if desired.

DANISH MEAT BALLS

(Frikadeller)

(Serves 6)

Half a pound beef and pork, each; 2 cups milk; 2 eggs; 1 finely chopped onion; 1 cup flour; salt and pepper to taste; shortening.

Grind meat 3 or 4 times through grinder. Add eggs, onion, pepper and flour. Then add the milk a little at a time. Mix thoroughly. Let stand for 3 hours. Before frying, add salt. Brown in shortening. Drop from large spoon into heavy skillet, turning balls so that they will brown all over. Remove balls and make a gravy with 2 tbsps. drippings in pan to which cream, flour, salt and pepper have been added and stirred into a smooth sauce. Return meat to gravy. Serve hot.

RED CABBAGE

(Rod Kaal)

(Serves 6)

One large head red cabbage; 4 tbsps. butter and sugar, each; 2 tbsps. red wine vinegar; lingonberry or other jelly.

Shred cabbage very fine; add sugar, butter, vinegar and about $\frac{1}{2}$ cup water. Cover and simmer slowly for $2\frac{1}{2}$ hours, adding water only if necessary to keep from scorching. Add more sugar and vinegar to improve taste during last 10 minutes of cooking. This is better each time it is reheated in a double boiler. Plum, currant or lingonberry jelly may be used instead of sugar. This is also delicious served with roast fowl and pork. Remember this when duck and venison return!

CUCUMBER SALAD (Agurkesalat)

Like a red cabbage, cucumbers are in favor and flavor as much as a vegetable in Denmark, as they are in pickled or in salad form.

Two large cucumbers; $\frac{1}{4}$ cup vinegar; 2 cups sugar; salt, pepper; chopped parsley; garden lettuce; chive-sour cream dressing.

Do not peel cucumbers. Slice as thin as possible. Mix the other ingredients and pour over cucumbers. This may be served at once but will be improved by standing several hours. In fact it will keep, covered and refrigerated for "quite a while." If you like, the cucumbers may be drained and served with a chopped chive-sour cream dressing on tender garden lettuce.

APPLE CAKE

This is no doubt Denmark's most popular dessert.

Two cups dry bread crumbs; $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter; 2 tbsps. sugar; $\frac{1}{2}$ cups sweetened applesauce; $\frac{1}{2}$ pint whipping cream. The crumbs are best when of dried French bread but any white bread is all right. Roll or grind them very fine. Mix with the sugar. Melt the butter in a heavy skillet and stir in the bread crumbs. Stir carefully to prevent burning, until all the butter is absorbed and the crumbs are crisp and brown; this last is the secret of good AEblekage. Cool and place a layer in bottom of buttered bowl; cover with a layer of applesauce. Repeat until you have several thin layers of applesauce and crumbs and all the ingredients have been used with a layer of crumbs on top. Place in the refrigerator for several hours before serving. Pass the whipped cream to which a dash of red jelly has been added. Equally exciting for both Danish and American appetites!

FOREST HILL MANOR Pacific Grove

All those having birthdays in the month of June were honored last night at the manor.

A huge birthday cake graced the big table where all the other decorations were in keeping with the birthday theme.

This custom of celebrating birthdays has been carried out since the inception of the manor—and is most enjoyable.

COLONEL WORTHINGTON HOLLYDAY (USA, Ret.) sat in his pleasant room in the Carmel Convalescent Hospital surrounded by treasured mementos of by-gone years. He was born in Baltimore, Maryland, on September 23, 1879.

His story, as told to us, dates back to the Spanish American War when he "joined up" to become a regular in the U. S. Army.

The Sur Coast

By ELIZABETH FULLER JONES

WILDERNESS CAMP OPEN

Last weekend more than 50 young women and men, all volunteer workers, spent two days in service training for work they will perform this summer for the City of Monterey Recreation Department. The "in training" took place at a remote location, deep within the Santa Lucia Mountains, some 20 miles down the Sur Coast, a location that is the site of the City of Monterey's annual wilderness camp, Camp Quien Sabe. Most of these volunteer workers will serve at various locations within the city's recreation facilities. Six of them, however, will remain at Camp Quien Sabe for three one-week sessions serving as counselors. They will have the opportunity of living, working and playing together with the scores of 8-14-year-olds who will come to this camp.

New to the work of counseling this year will be Deanna Akins of Monterey High School and Tom Shaffer of Pacific Grove High. Former Camp Quien Sabe counselors returning this season will be Gary Gasperson, Martha Henney, Cris Link and Mimi Thorngate. Returning, too, will be Tod Bliss, general assistant about camp.

Camp Quien Sabe's sessions began last Monday and conclude July 8 under the direction of Max Mobley, assistant director of recreation for the City of Monterey. Camp Quien Sabe has been in operation for many years. For the fifth consecutive year it will operate at its secluded location of the coastal mountains where boys and girls will take part in a living-camping experience in a true wilderness setting. There will be daily swimming, nature study, crafts, hikes. Campers will sleep under the stars, enveloped in an abundant growth of madrone, redwood, oak and bay trees.

During the years that Camp

Quien Sabe has been in operation, members of the camp have had the opportunity of becoming "Trailblazers," which is a recognition of their good behavior, good attitude and accomplishment. Many boys and girls return to this camp summer after summer with the hope that they too may earn membership in the Trailblazers. When the children have passed certain tests, achieved certain skills and have attended camp for two weeks, four weeks or eight weeks, for the various degrees they are awarded, first an axe, then a knife, then an arrowhead and finally a "golden" tomahawk, each made of copper, or other metal, strung with corn and worn about the neck. The "axe" is likened to the tool used in hacking out a place in the wilderness, preparing a foundation for the house. The "knife" cuts a finer path, helps to make the walls. The "arrowhead" symbolizes the roof of the house—the camper is now learning to assume a place of leadership. The earning of the golden tomahawk is the final degree. The camper has now passed all the tests, achieved skills, and learned to be cheerful and cooperative at all times, also gained a love and appreciation of the out-of-doors.

Further information about Camp

Quien Sabe may be obtained from the City of Monterey Recreation Department.

SABL SUMMER SCHOOL

"We will have a strong physical fitness program, for I believe a child should be healthy in mind as well as in body," said Mrs. Nancy Bottero in telling of her plans for this season's SABL Summer School which opened last Monday. Mrs. Bottero, teacher at the one-room, six-grade school at Palo Colorado, entered into this second year of this six-week summer program on the campus of the All Saint's Episcopal Day School in Carmel Valley with joyous enthusiasm and much appreciation of the group of individuals who will work with her at SABL.

Mrs. Willie Belle Mason, mathematics teacher at Carmel Middle School, is teaching new math and will explore, with the students, many of the very earliest numbering systems.

On the staff also is Bob de La Paz, former student at Seaside High School, president of the student body and member of the swimming team, now a pre-medical student at Raymond College in Stockton, an "ungraded" school. Mrs. Bottero feels that Bob's work with the summer school will be of particular interest. For the several years Mrs. Bottero has been teaching at the Palo Colorado School, and during the summer school activity, she has used the ungraded approach to education.

Jinx Snow, an avid equestrienne who worked as camp counselor in her former home in Bangkok, Thailand, and was associated with SABL last year, has returned to assist in the summer program, too.

Serving as teacher's aides, are a group of junior and senior girls from Carmel High School, all volunteers, serving without compensation because of their keen interest in this type of summer study and recreation. During the past months, this same group of young women, has spent many interesting and happy hours assisting Mrs. Bottero at Palo Colorado School.

These young women include Colleen Coggins, Pam Martin, Terrie Read, Susette Smith and Andrea Torras.

Classes at SABL are held five days a week and include children aged 7-13 years.

The name SABL stands for the words "seek, ask, believe and learn" and is a name chosen by the children when the school opened last year.

NEW LODGE OWNERS

Redwood Lodge and Campground is under new ownership, new management, and new policy! This well known business establishment located on Highway One midway between River Village and Pfeiffer Big Sur State Park was purchased recently from Joe Adams by Don McQueen and John Smith, both of whom long have been associated with various business enterprises in the Big Sur area. Mr. Smith and his wife are managers of Ripplewood Resort and were formerly in charge of the Lucia Lodge Resort, further south on Highway One. Mr. McQueen is a co-owner, together with Walter Trotter, of the Big Sur Campground which is under the management of Burley Farber. A licensed building contractor, Mr. McQueen is a partner of Frank Trotter and Everett Makowski in Big Sur Construction Company.

Redwood Lodge and Campground is situated on 19 acres of redwood filled land, running along the highway and bisected by the lovely Big Sur River. On the road level are motel units, a store, service station, bar and restaurant. Along the river, and across it, are over 60 campsites, equipped for trailer, tent and car camping.

Tucked in among the towering trees are overnight cabins and housekeeping units.

More than 20 individuals are employed at Redwood Lodge to serve the needs of tourists and guests. Among these is Roger Werts, general manager, who comes to his new position after six years service with the California State Division of Beaches and Parks. For the past two years Mr. Werts and his family have been stationed at Pfeiffer Big Sur State Park. Assisting Manager Werts is Gail McQueen, sister of Don McQueen, a June graduate of Monterey Peninsula College, who is serving as secretary treasurer of the organization. Store manager is Barbara Bernstein, and in charge of the auto service station is Troy Russell.

Art News . . .

A series of classes in life drawing and portraiture, under the direction of Royden Martin, will be held in the studio of Charles Thomas on Tuesdays and Thursdays from June 28 through July. The sessions, open to beginners and advanced students, will be limited to eight or ten persons.

Further information may be obtained at Beeches' Little Picture Gallery or by phoning 624-2953.

Alex Dzigurski, widely-known landscape and marine painter, opens his gallery today in The Mall on San Carlos Street between Fifth and Sixth.

Born in Yugoslavia of Serbian parents, Mr. Dzigurski studied painting at the School of Art in Belgrade and at the Academy of Art in Munich, Germany. During his 15 years in this country, he has painted a great variety of American scenery in all 48 states, painting marines on the West, Gulf and Maine coasts. In his travels he has been deeply impressed not only with the magnificence of the coastlines but also by the tremendous variety and beauty of mountains and plains.

Prior to American residence, the artist's works were widely exhibited in Europe in such centers of culture as Vienna, Prague, Budapest, London, Paris, Florence, Venice and Rome. In the last two years, Mr. Dzigurski visited nine countries in Europe, painting many beautiful spots from the Alps to Italy, France and Spain. According to the Chicago Tribune, "He catches his two favorite subjects of the sea and mountains in all types of moods. He is an amazing combination of many qualities which have made his paintings unforgettable when once seen. Few painters of the American scene have had his meteoric rise to universal popularity."

The Lyceum will conduct three workshops for talented boys and girls this summer. Andrea Sparks will teach oil painting to students who demonstrated ability in Fall workshops. Seventh and eighth grade selected students, 15 in all, will explore sculpture with Miss Sparks assisted by Duane Matheron. Mary Balzar Buskirk, internationally known weaver, will instruct a class in this craft for eighth, tenth and eleventh graders.

All three workshops have been made possible through a grant to the Lyceum from the Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services.

Subjective expression is being featured in the newly opened Art Loft at the 3 Rings Book Shop on Old Fisherman's Wharf in Monterey.

Under the direction of Circus, The Ring of Awareness, the gallery's opening show includes artists Nadine Eaton, Patricia Fearey, Albert Garvey, and Paula Rogers; sculptors Kenneth Wiese, and Liesel Wurzmann. The loft is open daily from 11:30 a.m. until 6 p.m. and Friday and Saturday nights until 10 p.m.

Twenty leading California art educators met in Los Angeles last week to plan with State Department of Education special consultant Charles Moody, also California Art Education Association officers, action to help reverse the current trend to de-emphasize art education in public schools. Mr. Moody is a former teacher at Carmel High School.

Representing the Division of Instruction of the State Department of Education, Mr. Moody urged the CAEA Council to work through the State Board of Education to improve the place of art in public schools. He stressed the significance of the influx of federal funds into the arts and humanities areas of instruction. He also briefed the eight CAEA members of the Art Task Force of the Arts and Humanities Planning Workshop called by State Superintendent of Instruction, Max Rafferty, and the State Board of Education.

Carmel artists Donald Teague, Geza St. Galy and Clarence Bates will judge the Church of the Wayfarer's tenth annual Religious Art Show entries on July 11 at the invitation of Mrs. Robert Aurner, who is working with the committee of church members. Mrs. Kenneth MacPherson and Richard Rodriguez will supervise the hanging of the work.

Mrs. Aurner reports that a number of outstanding local artists have agreed to submit work this year. Entry blanks with complete information are being mailed to more than 300 artists this month.

Tassajara Encounter, which opened its ten-week series of craft workshops Monday, is offering a special weekend workshop for those unable to attend during the work week. The informal "classes" this weekend will be directed by Hal Painter, weaving, Cliff Robinson, painting, and Joe Soldate, woodfiring pottery.

Price for the weekend at Tassajara Hot Springs is $40, inclusive of room and meals from tomorrow evening through Sunday lunch, also all art materials. For reservations or further information, phone 624-4033 or Tassajara Hot Springs, Carmel Valley.

Next in the Tassajara Encounter series will be the photography workshops, July 8-18 and July 18-28, directed by Ansel Adams, Morley Baer, Wynn Bullock, Brett Weston and Blair Stapp. July 11-22, Stan Bitters will lead the ceramics workshop and Jean Ray Laury, that in stitchery.

Treasurer from 1958 until last April, when he resigned because of ill health, Mr. Coleman died Sunday in a local hospital.

Born in Almonte, Ontario, Canada on November 2, 1890, he had lived most of his life in Monterey County. He was educated in Salinas public schools and joined the staff of the Monterey County Trust and Savings Bank in King City in 1917. After service with the U. S. Army in World War I, Mr. Coleman returned to the King City bank, rising to assistant manager and assistant cashier. He also served as city treasurer for King City for 22 years before coming to Carmel, where he was appointed assistant manager of Monterey County Trust and Savings Bank, now Wells Fargo Bank. He retired from his 39-year banking career in 1956.

A charter member and first commander of King City American Legion Post 67, he belonged also to Carmel Lodge 680, F&AM, Carmel chapter of the Eastern Star and Carmel High 12 Club.

Mr. Coleman leaves his wife, Reene, of Carmel; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Tumbleton of Pacific Grove and Mrs. Gladys Burns of Monterey; two sisters, Mrs. Pearl Garmeson and Mrs. Agnes Martin of Watsonville; nine grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were Arthur Plaxton, J. H. Bastedo, William Walker, George Wishart, Fred Phillips and Eugene Nissen. Burial took place at El Carmelo Cemetery in Pacific Grove.

with a Monterey real estate firm at the time of his death. He was born in London, England, October 5, 1899.

Surviving are his wife, Hazel, of West Vancouver, B.C., and a sister, Mrs. John S. Dyke of Crofton, Vancouver Island, B.C.

Joyce Morris Receives Ph.D.

JOYCE MORRIS

Joyce Morris, who received her Ph.D. degree from the University of New Mexico June 10, will work with the New Mexico Educational Services Center under Dr. Devoy Ryan, director, as a reading-language arts specialist in the state's public schools. Her doctoral dissertation was titled "An Investigation into Language - Concept Development of Primary School Pueblo Indian Children." The degree is in Education: Curriculum and Instruction. During this summer she will teach at UNM.

The distinguished Carmel High School graduate is the daughter of Mrs. Claire Morris, the granddaughter of Mrs. Claire Eagleton and the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Eagleton, all of Carmel.

Joyce studied at Mills College and San Francisco State College, later earning her B.A. degree in social science from San Jose State College. She received a master's degree in elementary education from the University of New Mexico in 1962 and was a graduate assistant there from 1961-66. Red Cross Chapter Trains Volunteers

June 29 and 30 have been announced as the dates for an orientation course to be given by the Carmel chapter of the American Red Cross. The two-day session will be from 10 a.m. to noon on the first day, and from 10 a.m. to noon and from 1-3 p.m. on the second, with lunch being served during the break. Anyone above the age of 16 who wishes to sign up for this indoctrination may telephone the chapter (624-6455). Approximately 20 persons have already signed.

The course is for basic instruction in the nationally set standards for the practices and policies of Red Cross volunteer work, after which each volunteer may elect the type of work in which she wishes to participate. The volunteer services for the Carmel chapter include work with the bloodmobile in Carmel, Fort Ord, and Carmel Valley, work in the chapter office, driving, production, and canteen.

Instructors for the course are Mrs. William (Harriet) Shanner, Mrs. Leo (Margee) Tanous, Mrs. Arthur (Lyle) Ramsey and Mrs. Clyn (Pamela) Smith. They point out that once a volunteer has received this Red Cross Basic Training Course for Volunteers, as it is officially called, the volunteer is prepared to work in any Red Cross unit in its local program. They also stress the growing need for training volunteers.

At the annual meeting of the Carmel chapter on June 16, Carl Bosholm was re-elected chairman for the coming year. Frederick K. Duhring was named first vice chairman; Francis P. (Skip) Lloyd, second vice chairman; Charles A. Stewart, treasurer; Margaret Barnes, secretary.

Members of the board of directors are Mrs. W. M. Shanner, August H. Johnson, Dale Junta, Mrs. Miriam Godwin, Mrs. Marjorie Haller, Mrs. Rogers Parrat, Dr. Russell M. Pratt, Thomas McKinstry, Mrs. Clyn Smith, Mrs. Frank Saret, Mrs. Leo Tanous, Carl P. Vetter, Lt. Col. Kay Witter, Mrs. R. L. Harris and F. Douglas Tellwright.

A gold Red Cross pin and a citation were awarded to Mr. Duhring for so successfully heading the 1966 fund and membership drive. Carvel Baldwin, residential fund drive chairman, and Malcolm Steel, top solicitor, received citations.

Tryouts Next Week For Children's Play

Tryouts for "Mr. Bunt," the delightful fantasy written by the late Ira "Rem" Remsen and first produced at the Forest Theater in 1924, will be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the theatre on Mountain View from 1-4 p.m. Needed are about six adults and six children for the leading roles, but there are numerous parts for little elves, etc.

Two generations of Carmel children have grown up with "Mr. Bunt" since the original production and a revival in 1952, both directed by the late beloved Blanche Tolmie. This year, the fairy tale revolving around a family will be co-directed by Gail Dowling, who has produced the annual Forest Theater plays the last two years, and Cole Weston.

The Carmel Unified School District summer recreation program and the Carmel Arts Commission are co-producing the play.

"Mr. Bunt" will play August 12 and 13 and rehearsals will be held Monday through Friday, 1-4 p.m., until the opening.

Request Studies Of Sunset Auditorium

Committees appointed June 13 by Chairman Peter Dyer of the Sunset Commission were administration, Dr. James Gilman, chairman, Admiral C. W. Fisher and Mr. Dyer; building and grounds, Captain Frank Falge, chairman, Admiral Fisher and James Pruitt; planning, Mrs. W. E. van Loben Sels, chairman, Ted Fehring and James Pruitt.

Chairman Dyer reported on a May 27 meeting with Martin Dibner and Robert Marchand of the executive staff of the California Arts Commission. On their advice, he had written a letter to the state commission asking for a study of the acoustical deficiencies of Sunset Center auditorium; also a study of the possibilities of establishing a teaching center for advanced music students at Sunset Center; both three-day studies to be financed by the state commission.

Ashton Stanley of the Carmel Innkeepers Association told Sunset commissioners that local innkeepers "are completely in support of what you are trying to do, but we think we should have a little voice in suggesting areas of improvement." He implied that the hospitality industry contributes considerable support to the city's economy and therefore should have some say in development of uses of Sunset Center.

Salaries For City Employees Up 7.8%

The amount in the 1966-67 city budget for salaries of employees will increase $25,637 over the fiscal year which ends on June 30 as a result of city council action on Monday night.

Approved by the council were normal annual step increases in the municipal salary schedule for each employee, plus two new positions. The latter are a secretary-dispatcher for the fire department and a parking officer for the police department, annual salary for each, $5,100.

Total amount budgeted for 1966-67 salaries of city employees was $353,649. This represents a 7.8% increase over the current fiscal year.

However, the salaries of the city forester and city engineer, each $120 a month, were not increased, neither was the city attorney's compensation, $400 a month.

Additional group insurance coverage for city employees also was approved by the council, cost $5,788 more per year. This sum, provides major medical expenses coverage for each employee and dependents. The first $100 of major medical expenses must be paid by employees.

"This is one of the most intelligent moves the city has made in a long time, also wise, compassionate and proper," Councilman Herbert Blanks commented before the unanimous vote on this matter.

California Life was the insurance company which submitted the lowest of six bids received. Eleven other companies asked to compete declined to submit bids.

Gene L. Bown, 28 year veteran employee of the food firm will succeed Mr. Jorgensen.

TALCOTT TO SPEAK AT DLI GRADUATION

U. S. Congressman Burt L. Talcott will be the speaker at graduation ceremonies tomorrow at the Defense Language Institute at the Presidio of Monterey. The 450 graduates have completed courses in 23 languages.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Christian Science churches will present a Bible Lesson on the broad and specific meanings of the term "Christian Science" at their services this Sunday.

Included will be one of the many parables which Christ Jesus used to describe the coming of his kingdom: "The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened" (Matthew). Along with it, will be read these lines from the denominational textbook: "Ages pass, but this leaven of Truth is ever at work. It must destroy the entire mass of error, and so be eternally glorified in man's spiritual freedom" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy).

Edward Hohfeld

Memorial services were held in Oakland June 14 for Edward Hohfeld, 91, distinguished San Francisco lawyer, businessman and philanthropist, who died at his home June 10.

Widely known on the Monterey Peninsula, he was the husband of the former Lillian Devendorf whose father, Frank J. Devendorf, was the founder of Carmel. He is survived also by a daughter, Jane Galante, and two grandsons.

A native of Oakland, Mr. Hohfeld attended San Francisco schools, later graduated from the University of California. After serving as principal of the Visalia and Auburn high schools, he entered Harvard Law School, where he received his LL.B. degree and where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Delta Phi fraternities.

He then returned to practice law in San Francisco and, in 1925, founded his own firm, Morrison, Hohfeld, Foerster, Shuman and Clark. In 1945, Mr. Hohfeld retired to become counsel to his firm.

Upon the death of May Treat Morrison, widow of his former partner, he was appointed trustee of a charitable trust which increased to such an extent under his stewardship that he disbursed more than $3,500,000 to various educational, cultural, religious and charitable institutions.

An active member of the San Francisco Bar Association, the State Bar of California and the American Bar Association, Mr. Hohfeld was instrumental in establishing numerous legal and judicial reforms in the state. He belonged to the California Historical Society, the Book Club of California and had been a patron of the Academy of Sciences since 1927. For several years he served as a trustee of Mills College and was an honorary trustee at the time of his death. Mr. Hohfeld's wide range of interests was reflected in his many philanthropies.

Tom Goodman

Private funeral services were held Monday at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, Pacific Grove, for Tom V. Goodman, who died Friday at his home on Dolores Street. While he had been under a physician's care, his death was unexpected.

Manager of Trevett Court, Mr. Goodman came here from Los Angeles six years ago. He was born in Lockland, Ohio, on June 20, 1896.

Surviving are his wife, Maizie, of Carmel; a sister, Mrs. Clifford Q. Griffin of Seacliff; two nieces and two nephews.

Community Effort
Built Seniors Club
Shuffleboard Courts

Have you wondered, driving the San Carlos route to and from Highway One through Carmel Woods, what goes on down in the depression where Junipero crosses Second Avenue? Do you even know where it is? It is Forest Hill Park, the province of the Carmel Seniors Club and its principal "Fun Project," and on most days you'll find lively games of shuffleboard being played—sometimes amicably, sometimes testily.

Forest Hill Park and its shuffleboard courts are the result of inspired community cooperation between the Rotary and High Twelve clubs, the Carmel City Council and the former Carmel Recreation Commission. In 1961, the Carmel Seniors found that Rotary was seeking a major project. Through the efforts of High Twelve member Rollo Payne, who was also Rotary president; Frank Putnam, Rotary past president; Hugh Smith, Rotary project chairman; Police Chief Clyde Klaumann, member of Rotary board of directors and of the recreation commission, also president of High Twelve at the time; the project was started. The construction of two boards was made possible by the cooperation of the city council. Three men still on that civic body today are Eben Whittlesey, Herbert Blanks and Gunnar Norberg — retired Councilman Jim Buffington also gave his support.

Cooperation never ceased: Rotary Club financed cement and building materials, High Twelve, fencing and clubhouse labor. The Kiwanis and Lions clubs joined in to donate substantial amounts for the purchase of equipment and supplies; and the board of education, through Stuart Mitchell, arranged for benches and slate scoreboards—the best in the land, incidentally. The assistance of Bill Askew, superintendent of streets, was invaluable, according to Don Neher, who has recorded the history of the Forest Hill Park. Two years ago, through the kindness of an anonymous donor and the aid of city officials, a third board was installed and the size of the club house increased. Now, it is hoped, some more splendid cooperation will soon produce the installation of "sanitary" facilities.

When the Carmel Seniors Club was organized, half of the 50 members were High Twelve members; four of the first five presidents belonged to the organization. The first was Harold Bond, second, the late Charles Daniels, then A. G. Mott, now the present president, Von Baker.

The seniors play every weekday morning, weather permitting, from 9:30 a.m. to noon. And they extend a welcome to everyone living in this vicinity to join the audience of this fine game played by a group of enthusiastic senior sportsmen.

Wesley Hunter

Private memorial services were held this morning at the Dorney and Farlinger Memorial Chapel for Wesley R. Hunter, 90, who died Tuesday in a local hospital after a brief illness.

Mr. Hunter was born February 12, 1876, at San Francisco's Hunter's Point, which was named for his father. With his mother, Abbie Goldsmith Hunter, he came to Carmel for the first time in 1886. His mother was an agent for the Women's Investment Company who, with her brother, Delos Goldsmith, homesteaded property which then belonged to the government. Together they built the first houses in the area, also the Carmel Hotel, which later was moved and became Pine Inn, and the bath house at the foot of Ocean Avenue.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Vera Graft of Sonora, three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. His wife, Amy, died in 1953.

Inurnment took place in Cemetery El Encinal, Monterey.

KIWANIS CLUB LEARNS OF RESCUE UNIT

Deputy Sheriff John L. Crisan, guest speaker at last week's Kiwanis Club meeting, described the history and operation of the sheriff's rescue unit. After Sheriff Jack Davenport witnessed a bad accident down the coast shortly after taking office, he realized how ill prepared his department was to handle such emergencies. With funds from the county, also donations, he organized and trained a team of volunteers who train in their off-duty time. Army and Navy helicopters often transport members to inaccessible areas of terrain or seacoast, according to the deputy.

MINNIE COYLE JOINS CARMEL INVESTMENT FIRM

Minnie D. Coyle, Mayor of Monterey, is now associated with Yates, Andrews and Walker, Inc., Carmel specialists in mutual funds, according to George V. Yates, a principal of the firm.

Mr. Yates said, "Mrs. Coyle, having complied with the department's requirements, has received her license from the Division of Corporations of the State of California and the National Association of Security Dealers. We are happy to make the announcement of her joining our organization."

ABOUT TOURISTS, VISITORS, AND THE LOCALS

TOURISTS . . . Tourists are people in cameras, aloha shirts and/or muu-muus. They have come to look at us out of a sense of duty as a part of seeing America first, and see us primarily as quaint pages in their scrapbooks or frames on their moving picture screens. They prefer neon lights, sidewalks and street addresses. They do talk about returning on some future vacation, but of course, you wouldn't want to live in that kooky town. They can't find our office.

VISITORS . . . On the other hand, Visitors are non-residents who come to see us frequently because they have a continuing love affair with our Village and our ocean. They actually walk on our beaches, buy things in our shops, and only the sheer impracticality of uprooting themselves from their present businesses elsewhere prevents their becoming Locals. They always stop to see us when they are here.

LOCALS . . . Locals are people who, through the kind permission of the Gods, live in Carmel permanently. They walk on the beaches when the tourists are gone and the sun isn't. They shop when the shops aren't crowded, and they even know where to find a parking place. They have lived all over the world and have chosen Carmel for their permanent way of life. They use their library cards, play instruments, paint pictures, or make things, or appreciate those who do. They have all the virtues—are kind, good, sweet and pure. If your dog gets lost, you hope he was found by a Local.

LIKE TO BECOME A LOCAL? We'd be happy to interview you and, if you qualify, would consider it a privilege to help you find a home here. Finding our office is the first test.

After six years of unprecedented economic expansion... indicators of caution are up. The market is uncertain. And Vietnam continues to cloud the picture. How should this influence the direction of your investing?

One—Should you regard current security price levels—(and such positive factors as the heavy capital expenditure plans of industry)—as signaling an opportunity to buy in a depressed market?

Two—Or should you accept the many apparent negative indicators as suggesting the last stages of a business cycle?

Or is there a third and wiser position to take? We believe there is. Planners Frown On Apartments

1. Greatly increased traffic due to apartment development would be extremely hazardous to the many children in the area who walk to school.

2. Even though flood control is taken into consideration in the design of the project, there can be no certainty that this area will not continue to be flooded. The cost of repair and further control could become the responsibility of the county.

3. The increased density caused by apartments would not be compatible with the surrounding residential area which has a minimum of 6,000 square feet per site.

4. An ample area, presently zoned for multiple dwellings, exists on the opposite side of the highway; therefore it is recommended that the high density zoning not be extended to the west side of the highway and that the request be denied.

5. That more consideration should be given to requiring more distance between buildings and the banks of the Carmel river in order to preserve a greenbelt area along the river.

Committee To Help Pick Superintendent

Dr. Bialek also emphasized the board statement in its application information sheet which states, "It is the desire of the Board of Education to find a superintendent whose primary strengths and interests lie in the area of maintaining, extending and developing the instructional and curriculum innovations which have been started in the district."

Of secondary importance to the board is, "the ability to effectively handle the operational, budgetary and construction needs of the district," according to the statement.

The board also tackled the transportation problem. It approved a three-mile limit on bus transportation for school children. Although a temporary schedule was given to the board, Superintendent Baird stated that other changes probably would still be made before a final bus schedule is decided upon.

The board turned down a suggestion by the superintendent that would have added another step to the administrative salary schedule, also changed the position of the administrative assistant on the salary schedule from an elementary principal schedule to that of the high school principal. It was felt by the board that the administrative assistant would be required to take on more responsibilities during the coming months. The board decided, however, to determine any salary adjustments at a later time.

In other business the board accepted the bid of Hampshire Construction Company for the construction of the Carmelo school library at a cost of $63,380. The board also accepted the invitation of President George J. Faul of Monterey Peninsula College to work with several other school districts in the area in the establishment of a Human Relations Committee for Education. The board received the resignation of Mrs. Jane Roman who is a second and third grade teacher at Captain Cooper school, and hired Mrs. Marlene Harris and Mrs. Barbara Wilson as full time elementary teachers.

How We Are Paying For Civic Center

made of civic or governmental uses.

In 1960-61, the council amended the general plan of the city to include the central business district, after public hearings for the citizenry to express opinions. In this plan, at first, the present site of Carmel Plaza, opposite Devendorf Plaza, the city park, was designated for development as a civic center. When this property was developed commercially, the plan was changed and city-owned land between Junipero and Torres, below Fourth, was designated for future use as a civic center—this center to include a city hall and police station. The city's corporation yard was also designated for location on part of this site.

In April of 1964, voters of Carmel were asked by the city council to approve a $575,000 bond issue in order to purchase Sunset School "for use as a municipal cultural and community center." No mention was made of civic uses.

Voters overwhelmingly approved the 25-year bond issue, which when finally amortized will have cost, including interest, $848,687. The price paid the school district for Sunset was $550,000. The rest of the bond issue funds were to cover incidental expenses to the purchase.

In 1965, when the hostelry tax was raised to four percent, specific allocation of this revenue was made by the council for the amortization of the Sunset bonds.

The allocations were: one-quarter of the hostelry tax revenue to amortize Sunset bonds; one quarter to be put in a reserve greenbelt fund; the remaining half to be put in a non-reserve capital outlay fund to implement the general plan, either by acquisition or improvement of city properties.

Two payments have been made from hostelry tax earmarked to amortize the bonds, the first, $23,530; the second, $28,317. At present in this fund is $35,500.

As it accrues, hostelry tax revenue allocated to the greenbelt reserve fund, and the non-reserve capital outlay fund is placed in a bank and draws interest—presently 4.8 percent.

At the present time, the total sum of these two funds, earning interest in the bank, is $204,552. Of this $99,192 is in the greenbelt reserve fund; $105,360 in the non-reserve capital outlay fund.

Last week, transfers of funds to cover payments to Burde, Shaw

Associates for additional Phase I civic center architectural work, $4,775.92, and to Granite Construction Company for completed excavation for a new police station, corporation yard and public works building on the Phase I site, were requested of the council. One councilman was absent and a resulting 2-2 vote of the four members present prevented the transfers from the hostelry tax non-reserve capital outlay fund and payment of the two bills received.

Also requested last week, was a third transfer from this fund, to cover a $2,542.92 deficit in the 1965-66 budget account for architectural and engineering services.

Last year when the budget was made, $10,000 was placed in this account, on the assumption that if more money were needed during the year it could be withdrawn from the hostelry tax non-reserve capital outlay fund drawing interest in the bank, and disbursed for any acquisition and improvement of capital outlay projects such as Phase I of the civic center, as provided in the 1965 allocations.

Total cost of Phase I, to date, is $27,882.08 divided as follows: paid to Burde, Shaw—$17,064.76; paid to the division of highways for soil tests—$361.70; unpaid to Burde, Shaw, $4,775.92; unpaid to Granite Construction, $5,500; unpaid to Neill Engineers, $120 (this sum covers establishing the corners of the property and setting grades).

All payments of the Sunset acquisition bonds have been paid with hostelry tax funds.

Because the bond issue method of financing results in large interest payments, the city council considered another method of financing the Phase I civic center construction. By a 4-1 vote, annual bank loans and repayments were approved with financing to be accomplished with hostelry tax funds. By using this method, instead of a bond issue, the city will save an estimated $192,548, according to figures provided by City Finance Officer Arthur Plaxton.

Next week, the Pine Cone will give details of the financing of Phase I of the civic center.
